

Subject: Safety Notice – Burglary, Fondling
Offense: Burglary, Sexual Battery
Date: Saturday, August 26, 2023

Content Warning: This notification includes information related to non-consensual sexual touching and unlawful entry of a residence.

At approximately 12:50 pm on Saturday, August 26, 2023, the Tulane University Police Department learned that a student had been the victim of a fondling at their residence located in the 900 block of Pine Street. At approximately 3:30 am an unknown male entered the victim's residence and bedroom. The unknown male unzipped the victim's pants and touched them in their private area. The victim awoke causing the perpetrator to flee the residence.

The subject was described by the victim as a male with short black hair wearing a white shirt and dark pants.

Please Remember These Safety Tips:

- Always secure your residence whether at home or away.
- Respect the rights and boundaries of others.
- Whenever possible install lighting or cameras at or around doorways and windows.

If you have any additional information related to this individual, please contact either the Tulane University Police Department or the New Orleans Police Department.
