Off Campus: Sexual Battery, Uptown

DATE & TIME of OCCURRENCE:

Sunday, March 11, 2018 at 4 p.m, a female Tulane student was walking on Freret Street, between Burdette and Fern Street, when she observed an unknown male subject walking in her direction. The subject walked past her and then turned around and began following her and eventually touched her on the buttocks. The subject continued to follow the victim to South Carrollton Avenue, where she entered a friend's apartment and notified the TUPD. The subject then fled the area in an unknown direction.

The subject was described as an unknown black male, dark-complexioned, 30 – 40 years of age, short haircut, 6 ft. tall, medium build, wearing a blue T-shirt with white and yellow writing and black basketball shorts.

It should be noted that it was confirmed that the recently arrested subject who committed several sexual batteries in the surrounding area is still incarcerated at the Orleans Parish Prison.

Officers are working with the NOPD and actively patrolling the area in search of the subject.

Descriptions provided by victim/witness.
