A criminal incident has occurred in our community. As always, we urge the Tulane community to be aware of your surroundings and use the security resources available to Tulane students, faculty and staff at the contact information below.

Safety Advisory Notice

Our protocol requires us to notify the Tulane University community when a serious criminal incident occurs in the periphery of campus where many of our students, faculty and staff live and/or frequent.

On Thursday 4.28.16 The NOPD advised us of an incident which occurred in close proximity to our community. This incident did not target any Tulane affiliate, but we are notifying the community as a precautionary measure.

Date and Time of Occurrence:

Wednesday 4.27.16 at 9:30pm

Location:

Intersection of Freret and Cherokee

Reported Offense:

On the indicated date two Loyola University students were walking in the vicinity of Cherokee and Freret when someone ordered them from behind to place their property on the ground. Upon turning towards the voice the victims observed a black male approaching holding a firearm. The subject ordered the victims to run away from him, which they proceeded to do.

Suspect's Description:

Male, Black, Thin Build, 20s, 5'9"-5'10", wearing a black hoodie.

As always, we urge Tulane community members to be aware of their surroundings and use the security resources available to Tulane students, faculty and staff at the contact information below.
