A criminal incident has occurred in our community. As always, we urge the Tulane community to be aware of your surroundings and use the security resources available to Tulane students, faculty and staff at the contact information below.

Safety Advisory Notice

Our protocol requires us to notify the Tulane University community when a serious criminal incident occurs in the periphery of campus where many of our students, faculty and staff live and/or frequent.

The NOPD has advised us that several robberies over a three day period have occurred in close proximity to our campus. These crimes did not target any Tulane affiliate, but we are notifying the community as a precautionary measure.

Incident 1: At approximately 9:15 PM on Saturday, April 16, two non-affiliated males were near Broadway and Burthe Streets when they were approached by two black males, one in his 20's, 6'1, thin build with a dark complexion. Subject was wearing a white T-shirt and dark pants. There was no description given on second subject. Subject #1 was armed with a gun and demanded their belongings. Subjects complied and perpetrators fled the area.

Incident 2: At approximately 11:30 PM Sunday, April 17, a non-affiliated pizza delivery driver pulled over at the corner of Octavia and Loyola streets. While he was parked, two black male subjects came up to his vehicle, pointed a gun at him and demanded his money, subjects then fled on foot. The only description given was that of an unknown black male wearing dark clothing.

Incident 3: At approximately 12:06 am on Monday, April 18, a non-affiliated pizza delivery driver was getting into his vehicle on Freret Street when two black males confronted him, one of the subjects pointed the gun at the victim and demanded his car and personnel items. The subjects then drove off in his vehicle. The subjects were described as follows; #1. Black male 5'8 165-180 lbs., wearing a grey sweat shirt with grey lettering. #2 Black male 5'8 165-180lbs, wearing dark clothing.

As always, we urge Tulane community members to be aware of their surroundings and use the security resources available to Tulane students, faculty and staff at the contact information below.
